

Rita

and the tour bus

As our Meeting and Group Coordinator, Rita is accustomed to guiding large numbers of people through our meeting spaces. Guiding them through our fair city, however, is a task she's performed only once. It started as she was bidding farewell to a group that was about to embark on a bus tour of Ottawa. As the bus idled, the promoter was panicking. The guide hadn't arrived yet.

"No problem," said Rita, laughing. "If he's a no-show, give me a shout and I'll give the tour." Fifteen minutes later, Rita's phone rang. Without hesitating, Rita ran downstairs, boarded the bus, and improvised the entire tour. Arriving back at the hotel to thunderous applause and even a few tips, Rita proved that our guests are always VIPs wherever they happen to be sitting.
